

St. Albans Messenger.

(Daily Published at 5 o'clock p. m. Weekly on Thursday Morning.)

OFFICE NO. 10 KINGMAN STREET.

ALBERT CLARKE,
Proprietor.

St. Albans, Vt., Feb. 17 1879.

27

Dear Mr. Garrison:

I was delighted when my dispatches came this afternoon to see that you have struck with your strong pen, (as I have the same day with my weak one) against the demagogical outrage perpetrated in Congress for the exclusion of the Chinese. I send you a paper.

Strike and spare not. I fought in the war for Union and Emancipation and I had rather fight again than see our national character compromised by a mean, low, cowardly and selfish exclusiveness.

Wishing for you many years of usefulness and a happy realization before you die that America has become what you have labored so long and so well to make her, I am, with distinguished regard

Your humble friend, Albert Clarke

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header.

Handwritten text in the upper section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in the middle section of the page.